UK Contract Wins and Renewals

John Menzies plc, the global aviation services business, today announces a number of contract wins and renewals across its UK business.

Contract wins and renewals:

- London Heathrow

EgyptAir, a long-standing customer of 18 years, has renewed its contract with Menzies World Cargo for a three-year term at London Heathrow Airport. Operating a daily B777 and double daily B737 service, EgyptAir are the fourth largest airline to operate through Menzies' Heathrow cargo warehouse.

- London Gatwick

Following a competitive tender process, Menzies has been appointed passenger and ramp handling partner to Jazeera Airways, a Kuwaiti based Carrier, at London Gatwick Airport. From June, Jazeera Airways will commence a new six-weekly route, operated by an A320neo aircraft.

- London Luton

IAG owned Level has selected Menzies as its ground handler of choice at London Luton Airport, where it is due to start operations for the first time, with six weekly flights to Amsterdam Airport operating on an A321 aircraft.

- Glasgow

Canadian airline WestJet has extended its agreement for passenger, flight ops, ramp handling and de-icing services at Glasgow Airport, where Menzies has been its trusted ground handling partner since 2015.

Giles Wilson, Interim Chief Executive of John Menzies plc said:

"It is great to see some momentum across the UK business. Not only is this growth coming from new contract wins, but also multiple contract renewals, a testament to the great work of the Menzies team on the ground. I look forward to further successes as the year progresses."
