

John Menzies plc

Regulatory Announcement

15 December 2016

Acquisition of ASIG by John Menzies plc

The Board of John Menzies plc (Menzies) acknowledges today's announcement by the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) in relation to the acquisition of ASIG from BBA Aviation plc.

We are pleased that this announcement allows us to continue to progress towards completion which will occur on satisfaction of all the remaining conditions precedent.

With regards to operations at Aberdeen Airport, Menzies will now consider their position and respond to the CMA accordingly.

Forsyth Black, Managing Director of Menzies Aviation said:

"I am delighted to acknowledge the CMA's announcement. Our team are ready to take control of the overall business and we are excited by the opportunities that exist. We will work with BBA Aviation plc and the CMA as we look to work through the issues raised in regards to Aberdeen Airport."
